

INDEX TO VOL. XLIX.

Abbey, Battle, history of 20.
Agents for selling books 148
Alexander, Archdeacon of Bangor 7
Alfred, Prince, his visit to the Coast of Africa 412
Algiers, the pirates of 386
Alps, region of the, how little known 45—description of, by Saussure 50—how divided 50
Amphitheatre, the 440
Arianism, its extent and progress 440, 444
Arnold, Matthew, his poems 518—his Switzerland 519—his Tristram and Iseult 522—his opinion of the choice of a subject 527
Arceiron, ice cavern of the 56
Aurora Leigh, a poem 541
Austria, her past civil and religious condition, 111—her present difficulties 115
Babylon, history of 355
Battle Abbey, Chronicle of 18—foundation of the Abbey 20—exempted from episcopal rule 20—its rights attacked by Hilary 20—the cause tried before the king 24—controversy decided in favour of the Abbey 32
Basil St. 443
Benedict St., the lawgiver of the Western monks 444
Berlin, the Rome of infidelity, 117
Berosus, his fragment of Babylonian History 355
Berwick, Duke of 233
Bibles, what is done with them abroad 186
Bishop of London, his opinion of the Essays and Reviews 497
Bishops, the English, their opinions of the Essays and Reviews. 493—that of the Irish Bishops 494—different views amongst themselves 495
Books, distribution of Protestant 148—character of those which are sold to the poor 150—greatly needed by poor Catholics 154—motives of 238, 541
Book-hawking 148, 150
Boyne, Battle of the 229
Buckingham, Duke of 368—meagreness of his work 369—obliged to leave office on the death of George IV. 370—opposed to the Catholic concessions 372
Bunsen, Baron, his speculations upon the creation 468
 —, upon book-hawking 150
Burgo, Richard de, attempt to cheat him out of his estate 212—history of the family 214

Campbell, Lord, his false statements concerning St. Thomas 19
Caronni, the Abbat, his work on the remains of ancient Carthage 387
Carthage, fate of its native literature, 384—hopes from the exploration of its remains 386—by Caronni and other travellers 387—ruins, found by Dr. Davis 391—mosaic pavement 394—description of 397—raising and carrying it 399—villa of Hannibal 406—site of the Temple of Saturn 407—its complete destruction 414
Catherine Emmerich, Wolff's account of her 167
Catholics, the poor greatly in need of books 153—horrible persecutions endured by them in Ireland 210—extermination openly proposed 217, 222
Cecil, his conduct under Queen Mary 265
Charles I., King, loyalty shown him by the Irish people 209—consented to the dishonesty of Strafford to them 212
Church, the Catholic; its former condition in Austria 111—its renovation 112—effect upon it of the revolution in Prussia 115—its condition in Bavaria 117—defenders raised up for her in France 122—persecutions she now endures in Italy 130—her greatest enemy is Latitudinarianism 268—her worst time, the decline of the Roman empire 439, 444
Church, of England, antagonism of principles within her 459—growing latitudinarianism 461—dilemma in which she is placed by the "Essays and Reviews" 492
Clergy, the Catholic Austrian, divided into three categories 113—French, noble stand made by them against Napoleon 124—English at the time of the Reformation 271
Clergy of the Church of England, their address to the Archbishop of Canterbury 498—how it was received 498
Clontarf, the massacre of 218
Club, Alpine, object of its formation 44—travels recorded by it, to the Col d'Erin 96—to Zermatt 97—ascend of the Mischabel-Dom 98—account of the Oberland 98—Alps of Glarus 99—night on the Bristenstock 99
Col d'Erin, prospect from 96
Cole, Sir W., praised for having famished seven thousand Irish 219
Columbanus St., 447—type of the missionary monk 448

- Coote, Sir Charles*, his indiscriminate slaughter 218
Conspiracy, the Dudley, its object and discovery 297
Convocation of the Church of England, deliberating upon the Essays and Reviews 496—its last deliberations upon Bishop Hoadley 496—its interference not well received 496—Gravamen presented by it 498
Crammer, what was the sincerity of his recantation 289—comparison of him with Northumberland 294
Cromwell, his treatment of Ireland, 319—transported 27,000 men 220—condemns the rest to Connaught 220
Cycle, the, discovery of 364
D'Alton, his works on Irish antiquity 190—met with unkindness from the families whose history he was writing 194—his immense labours 196—ancient families mentioned by him 237—his own name noble 237
Danes, in Ireland, better treated by England than the Irish 201
Davis, Dr., his purpose to explore the remains of Carthage 388—touches at Cagliari 389—commences digging 390—finds a ruin 391—his toil rewarded 393—finds inscriptions 401—believes he has found the house of Hannibal 406—of the temple of Saturn 407—his excavations in Utica 410—is recalled by the Government 414
Derry, siege of 225
Donaldson, Dr., his avowal of Atheist principles 459
Dromore, break of 226
Edward VI., King, his firmness in cases of conscience 280—his political ability 284—his death 284
Egypt, darkness of its early history 363
Elizabeth, Queen, state of Ireland under her reign 203
Empire, the Roman, its decline 437—removal of the seat of it, from Rome 438
England, her foreign policy 118, 198, 417, 419, 428—her condition under the Reformation 268—doctrinal desolation in 270—evidenced by the Privy councils 272—is isolated from other countries 426
English, the, took possession of Ireland 200—refused the benefit of their laws to the Irish 201—with the exception of five families 201—their intolerable persecution of the Irish 202
Enoch, the, poem of 527—scene of 528—the story 529—quotations 530—criticism 537
Essayists, the, their relation to the Church of England 489
Essays and Reviews, contain no new opinions 458—the authors quietly set aside Catholic opinions 462—and the doctrines of their own church 463—the Essays distinct and yet connected 464—the treatment in them of Scripture 466—opinion entertained of them by the Westminster 468—protest against them by the bishops 492
Faber, the Rev. F., his poetry 540
Fitzgerald, the family of, their sufferings under the English Government 204
France, irreligious condition of, under the Bourbons 121—its literature 126
Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria, his religious renovation of Austria 112
Frederick William, of Prussia, his irreligious policy 116
Froude, Mr., the apostle of Humanitarianism 264—similarity with Carlyle 264—his excuse for Cecil 265—testimony to the effects of the Reformation 268, 270—account of the changes of the liturgy 273—his description of Queen Mary 285—his judgment upon the conversions of Cranmer 285—Northumberland 292—ignores the treasons against Mary 295—conspiracy against her 297
Gahway, attempt to confiscate all its lands to the Crown 217
Gilpin, Bernard, his opinion of the effects of the Reformation 269
Glaciers 52—waters issuing from them 56—their surface 57—waste carried on in them 58—evening on the Glaciers 59—morning on the Great Gôrner Glacier 60—crevasses in them 62—formation of the Moraines 64—Glacier tables 68—gravel cones 69—water shafts 69—dirt bands 70—veined structure of 74—progressive motion of 76—not equal in all parts 77—is continuous 79—of Mont Blanc 80, 89—at their limits 82—"seracs" 89—glacier of Gêtroz 93—of Findelen and Gôrner 97
"Graces", the so-called, sought for by the Irish people 211
Godric, St., his messages and revelations concerning St. Thomas 10, 12
Graffeneire, the mountain of 48
Gregory, St., the Great, description of his career 445—an instance of servility in his writings 445—parallels to it 446
Grey, Lord, his Cabinet 378
Hannibal, supposed traces of him 405
Henry II., King, his overtures to the King of France 5—decides the controversy of Battle Abbey 24
Herodotus, his education 348—his travels 349—rewarded by the Athenians 350—his History of Assyria 350—his death 351—his sources of information 351—his defects as an historian 352—the Clio 354—the Euterpe 363—the Melpomene 364
Hilary, Bishop of Chichester, tries to bring Battle Abbey under his jurisdiction 20—contests the charter of the Abbey 21—defends his cause before King Henry 27—finally releases the Abbot from episcopal jurisdiction 32
History, how it should be written 2—requires more learning in the present day 453
History, of the great Irish families 192—of England, by Mr. Froude 264—of Assyria, by Herodotus 355—of Egypt 363—of Seythia 364—of Carthage 384—of the Papacy 435
Hood, Thomas 300—assistant editor of the London Magazine 302—his introduction to the author of Elia 303—his marriage 304—his death 306—his letter to a distributor of tracts 307—one of his prefaces 311—Hood's own 315—Death of the Dominio 319—extract 320—describes the "Parish revolution" 327—extracts in poetry 332—his correspondence 337
Hooper, Archbishop, his consecration 76
Ice, different degrees of density in 73
Illustrations of King James's Army List 190—its first appearance 194—present edition 194
Inscriptions, found in the ruins of Carthage 401—in the Temple of Saturn 409
Ireland, her first invaders 204—those under

- Cromwell 205—her reception and maintenance of the faith 447
- Irish*, the, their generosity to King Charles I. 210—treatment of them by the English Government and the King of Sardinia 427—their bravery 427
- Italy*, its social condition 128—characteristics of its great divisions 134—desire felt for its unification 141
- Jacobinism*, the principle of the Napoleonic policy 109
- James I.*, King, modes by which he pursued the "plantation of Ulster" 208
- James II.*, King, his intentions of toleration 223—his war in Ireland with King William 227
- Jews*, the converted, Wolff's opinion of them 166
- Jowett*, Professor, his opinion of the Scriptures 466—treats with indifference the words of the Saviour 475—considers the Creed an anachronism 478—his system for interpreting the Scriptures 479
- Krudener*, Madame, Wolff's account of her 168
- Kings*, their rights in the middle ages 449
- Lamb*, Charles 304
- Lamorcieres*, General, does justice to Irish bravery 198
- Language*, the Punic 400
- Latitudinarianism* 268
- Limerick*, siege of 231
- Literature*, Catholic 146—not encouraged 147—Carthaginian 384
- Louis XVIII.*, King, character of his reign 120
- Ludwig*, King of Bavaria 117
- Luther*, Martin, anecdote of him, by Hoffbauer 166
- Manuscripts*, 5, 6—those containing the Chronicles of Battle Abbey examined 33—those of Mr. D'Alton 196
- Maps* of the Alps, very imperfect 46—those brought out by the Alpine Club 49
- Martyr*, Peter 277
- Mary*, Queen, her interview with her brother 278—who refuses her to hear Mass 280—compromise effected 281—her firmness 281—account of her person 285—excuse for her persecutions 296—conspiracy against her 297 and writings 298
- Maximilian*, King, his influence in Bavaria 117
- Monasteries*, the, 436—method of their first institution 442—especially in the East 443
- Monks*, the 435—in the East 442—they appear in the West 444—discharge the missionary work of Europe 445—the Irish especially 446—important mission of the Western monks 449—treatment of their "villains" 452—originate towns and villages 452—the good love their condition 456
- Montalembert de*, his history of the Monks of the West 437, 454—his love of liberty 456
- Mont Blanc*, new routes attempted over it 92—when the name was first heard in Europe 102
- Mosaic*, pavement found in the ruins of Carthage 397—moving it 399
- Mythology*, of the Carthaginians. 402—illustrations of, found in the ruins of Utica 411
- Naples*, conduct of the Revolutionists there 133
- Napoleon III.*, his policy 106—adherence to the ideas of 89, 122—his influence in Europe 123, 128
- Neeve*, or commencing Glacier 82—how connected with the mountain snow 84
- Niebuhr*, his attempt to settle Carthaginian history 385
- Nineveh*, what is known of its fall 360
- Northumberland*, Duke of, his conversion 287
- O'Connor*, family of 213
- O'Donnell*, Irish chieftain, how oppressed by James I. 209
- O'Neill*, the chief, driven into exile, by James I. 208
- Orange*, party in Ireland 205
- O'Reilly*, Major, his defence of Spoleto 199
- Oxford*, University of, infidel principles introduced 117
- Pattison*, Mr. his views of the functions of reason 480
- Peaks*, Passes, and Glaciers, work published by the Alpine Club 40, 44, 46, 49, 100
- Pedigree*, of royal families 212
- Pelagii*, the 362
- Piedmont*, outrages committed there upon morals 131—its parliament 131
- Pius VII.*, Pope, Wolff's account of him 169, 174
- Pius IX.*, Pope, apathy of Europe towards him 127—reforms granted by him in 1848, 417—results 417—reforms introduced by him 420
- Pocock's journey* in the Alps in 1741, 100
- Poetry*, its requirements 503
- Powell*, Professor, his views upon revelation 483—upon a "self-evolving nature" 487
- Prayer*, book of 1549, 272
- Prayer books*, comparison of 274
- Press*, the, in Piedmont 131
- Pyramids*, the, 363, mode of building 363—their object 364
- Quadrilogus*, the 4
- Ravenscroft*, Mr., his Herodotus 348—his notes to the translation 352—his eleven essays 354—remarks upon Herodotus' Assyrian History 355—essay on the Ethnic affinities of the nations of Western Asia 361—goodness of his translation 366
- Rayneval*, Count de, his testimony to the Pope's improvements 420
- Reform*, act of, opinions entertained of it by the statesmen of the day 373
- Reformation*, testimony to its effects, by the Reformers themselves 268—by Mr. Froude 268
- Rendu*, Monseigneur, Bishop of Annecy, Glacier explorer 85
- Revolution*, the, in Rome 418—throughout Europe 418—employs assassins 419
- Robertson*, Mr., his poem 527
- Romans*, the, demoralised condition of 441
- Rulers* of Europe, their sins of Government on the overthrow of Napoleon 107
- Russell*, Lord John, his gross charges against foreign Governments 420—his popularity hunting 430—his disgraceful defence of the King of Sardinia 431
- Sargon*, King of Assyria 358
- Sardinia*, King of, his late conduct 422—opinions expressed upon it by the Emperor of the French 422—by the Russian Government 423—by Austria and Prussia 424—his wanton

- cruelty 426—his treatment of Irish prisoners 426—his acts of robbery and spoliation 431
Saint Thomas of Canterbury 2—Godric 10, 12—Catherine of Bologna 17
Sargfeld, Earl of Lucan 235—his death at Lander 236
Saturn, Temple of 407
Saunders, description of the Alps 50—of the Glaciers 52, 84—of Chamouni 102
Scenery, mountain, love of, felt by Englishmen 41
Scriptures, the Holy, how treated by Protestant Divines 466—principle of interpretation of 479—faults supposed in them 482
Scythia, its language 365—the country 365
Sennacherib, his wars 358
Seracs, portions of the Glaciers 89
Sixt, Valley of 87
Societies, secret; their organization and power 137
Solomon, Nehemiah, the Jew convert of Lewis Way 159
Stratford, Lord, subsidies, he extorted from the Irish under false pretences 211
Stuarts, the, respect shown for their memory by the Royal family and Sir W. Scott 195
Talbot, Richard, an Irishman, appointed to a colonelcy 223—makes good use of his power 224
Temple, Dr., his essay on the education of the World 465—theories on the use of the Bible 481
Tennyson, his poetry in harmony with the age 506—his Locksley Hall 509—his Idylls of the Kings 513
Tobias, Scriptural differences as to his age 366
Thomas St., of Canterbury 2—lives written of him 3—his letters 3—collection of by Dr. Giles 3—anecdotes of 7, 8, 9—message to him from St. Godric 10—the prophecy fulfilled 12—further prophecy 12—legends concerning him 15—apparition to St. Catherine 18—his judgment in the Battle Abbey controversy 33
Tyndall, Professor, his work upon Glaciers 43, 85—observations upon their movement 77—his laborious undertakings 86—his ascent of Mont Blanc 88—warning of the dangers of Alpine travelling 100
Union, for book hawking, its doings 152
University of Oxford 117
Universities, condition of under Edward VI. 271
Ussher, Archbishop, fabricates papers to prove that the Irish did not admit the Pope's supremacy 210—his grandson becomes a Catholic priest 210
Utica, excavations on the site of 410—mosaics found there 411
Val de Bagnes, devastated by a flood in 1818, 93—route from it to Haudières 95
Venetz, Mr., engineer, employed to cut through a glacier 94
Vienna, great men of 112
Way, Lewis, his history 158
Wellington, Duke of, unpublished letters 369—suffered from the grant of rights to the Catholics 371—declined to oppose his successors to the ministry 375—letter to the Duke of Buckingham 379
Westminster, Review 488
Whigs, the, sent an emissary to Rome 418
Williams, Dr., discards the prophetic element in Scripture 472—explains away all the Christian doctrines 477
William, of Canterbury, his work, anecdote in 5—was a monk of Canterbury 6
William, of Wykeham, his manuscripts 5
Wills, Mr., his travels in the Valley of Sixt 87—his ascent of Mont Blanc 88—description of his bivouac on the road to Orsières 91
Wilson, Mr., speculations upon the New Testament 469—throws doubts on the identity of our Lord 476
Wolff, Joseph 156—character given of him by Lewis Way 157—his opinion of the Jews 160—history of his own conversion 161—account of German religion 163—is baptized a Catholic 164—his account of the Catholics of Vienna 165—account of Catherine Emmerich 166—of Madame Krudener 168—of the Pope 169—of the Collegio Romano 169—praises the liberality of Rome 173—acknowledged his own defects 174—his dismissal 175—occasion of his becoming Protestant 178—goes to College 180—his travels 182—his opinions 188
Xerxes, his bridge over the Hellespont 366
Zermatt, 97—excursion from, to Ayas 97

